HOLBROOK -WORK

HOLBROOKS OF KENTUCKY

Evelyn Ferguson, Denver, CO; Mary D. Fugate, Tucson, AZ; Donna Fowler; Athelene Sinkess, Windsor, CT; and many others who furnished information on one or more families. These, and I sure others I have omitted, plus my own research in various libraries, census records, Reunions, County Court Records, newspapers, etc. In the past we have cut off with the generation that went through the year 1900. Now that the 1910 cenus is public, plus the 1920 is scheduled to be available in a few years, we will try to now take families through the generation breaking through the year 1915. This will also hold true for future family articles or series.

Also because the lineage is so compiled, rather than from detailed, proofed research, certainly the data listed in this series should be verified by those doing family research. Certainly it is not gospel because it is in print in this series.

From what I have seen there is some controversary in some of the lineage data and I expect to hear from several of you as we work this series. It is our hope that with your corrections, and additons, both lineage and data, that we will wind up with a fairly accurate family series of the Holbrook family of Kentucky. When you see anything, dates, etc., you know to be incorrect, let us know that correction and why please. The success and accuracy of this series depends on your input, so let us hear from you please.

No! It appears the Holbrooks in Kentucky stem from one Ralph Holbrook, and his wife, Mary Wilcoxson of Walgherton, Cheshire, England.

Ralph's will, probated April 20, 1725, states his children are: Elizabeth, married to Samuel Venables; John (To be given a share if he should claim it in 7 years); Thomas; William; and Ralph, son of my son Randel, but no share listed for the son Randel.

John and Randel are probably already in America by the time of this 1725 will. Parish registers show that John married (1) in 1720 to Mary Brassy, and that they had two children: Mary in 1720, and William in 1722. What happened to the wife, Mary, is unknown, as John's will names Katherine as his wife. This 1733 will (written in Brunswick Parish, King Georges Co., VA), also mentions a brother, Randall of Stafford Co., VA. John's son, William married in Stafford Co., VA., in 1744, and later he is found on the 1758 Stokes Co., NC tax list. John also mentions 3 Godsons, John, Randall, and Edy Holbrook, that he later lists as cousins.

Randall, or Randolph, moved to Goochland Co., VA, about 1752, where he died ca 1777. His sons, Edy, Randolph and John moved to Wilkes Co., NC, in the late 1770's and all 3 are on the 1787 tax lists. Edy later went to SC, and on to Georgia by 1790. The other two remained in Wilkes Co., NC. Randolph died in 1793, and John in the early 1800's. It is these 3, Edy, Randolph and John who are the forefathers of the Kentucky Holbrooks of this series.

The above gives a preliminary before starting our numbered lineage system in this series on the Holbrooks of Kentucky.

HOLBROOKS OF KENTUCKY

By Clayton R. Cox

Part 2

In our first part we advised we needed your corrections, changes, etc., to make this family series as accurate as possible. We are receiving this info.

Our first contributor is Mrs. Louise B. Fowler, Box 219, Ore City, Texas 75863. So here are her corrections for the Sept 1990 issue.

Page 5 No. 11 Edy Holbrook. The date of birth must be in error. The date of his 2nd marriage to Mary Toben is 1756 per J. C. Halbrooks data from the Douglas Register. You show the date of birth of the first child as 1755.

✓ Page 7 No. 50 Date of marriage of Sarah Holbrook to William Lyon, 1879, must be in error. I show the date as 1819, John Holbrook, Witness.

✓ Page 8 No. 68 The parents of David Boggs were John O. and Nancy (Wells) Boggs. John O. and Nancy (Wells) Boggs are my ancestors.

Mrs. Fowler has also supplied some additional material to add to the lineages of #44, #52 and #68 in future issues.

Our next corrections are from Julia and Ron Holbrook, 4600 N. E. 15th Ave., Vancouver, WA 98663.

✓ Page 6 No. 33 William " Buck" Holbrook, b ca 1800, Wilkes Co., N. C., did not marry Sarah Sparks. He married Delilah Fugate (Hugot). They are listed in the 1850 & 1860 carter Co., Censuses. The william Holbrook who married Sarah "Sally" Sparks is #83 on Page 8 of part I.

In addition to the above Julia and Ron furnished some family sheets on the lineages of William and Delilah (Fugate) Holbrook, William and Sarah (Spicer) Holbrook and others for future issues.

Now to pick up where we left off with the Sept 1990 issue.

HOLBROOKS OF KENTUCKY

By Clayton R. Cox

First to answer a principal question I have been asked. Is Holbrook your lineage. The answer is no. This series being done for this magazine is from data being submitted to me plus what I have collected on this family in the past.

Now for letters of corrections, additions, etc.

Athelene S. Sinkus, 30 Sunset Terrace, South Windsor, CT 06074.

Campbell Holbrook, who m Susannah Holbrook, was a son of #70 John Randall and Rebecca (Boggs) Holbrook.

Part 2, Page 18, Dec 1990 - Nos. 118 & 119.
I do not have #118 Alonzo or #119 Loranza Holbrook as children of Pleasant and Sarah (Jordan) Holbrook. They may be grandchildren. The 1860 Lawrence Co., KY census shows the youngest child in Pleasant's household is #117 Melissa , age 9.

Elizabeth Adams who m Jesse Holbrook, was a dau of No. 132, Jesse and Margaret (Jenkins) Adams. Please Note - Because Elizabeth's birthdate is given as 1844 and the marriage date of her parents is Aug 26, 1846 (As shown in Letcher Co., KY marriage records) there may be questions on this. If so see the 1850 Letcher Co., KY cenus, Dist #2, HH 129. In this household listing, Elizabeth's age is listed as age 5 in 1850. This is per records - I don't have any explanation.

Randolph and Dianah were my g g grandparents, and Nancy was my g g step-grandmother.

Part 2, Page 19, Dec 1990 - No. 167.
I have not record of a Polly Polly.

JAMES ~~John~~ Skaggs who married Mary Holbrook was the son of John and Mary "Polly" (Woods) Skaggs. For the data on parents, refer to the Annals of Floyd County Kentucky, by Charles C. Wells, Page 155, mentions an undated 1818 bond for the marriage to take place between JAMES ~~John~~ Skaggs and Polly Wood, by John Skaggs and Peter Skaggs. Page 301 lists the marriage of this couple as Oct 1. The census lists Mary as John's wife.

Editors Note: Most assurdly these letters are appreciated as all of us want to know that published Genealogy Material on any family is as accurate as possible. all of us owe these correspondents a vote of thanks for taking their time to submit additons or corrections to make this series both complete and accurate, and especially do we appreciate the doucumentations they are submitting to substantiate the data submitted. Though these took up considerably space, that space was needed as well as the pause to correct the previous parts printed. Again our thanks to these correspondents, and we challenge all of you to question any info listed in this series, or any other listed in TEK.

Now to pick up where we left off in December 1990.

Nos. 128 and 130 are the same person.- The child should read William Griffen "Coffeepot" Holbrook. He was simple and was nicknamed Coffeepot because he would pick up the Coffeepot and drink from the spout.

Part 1, Page 5, Sept 1990, No. 16

Paul W. Gregory in his contribution to THE HERITAGE OF WILKES COUNTY, 1982 published by the Wilkes County Genealogical Society, page 270, gives some information on my ancestor Hargis Holbrook. (Editor's Note: Mr. Paul W. Gregory, a retired school supt., last address I have is P. O. Box 63, Hays, N. C. 28635-0063).

Mr. Gregory states the children of Hargis and Katherine are named in the deed of conveyance which was made after the death of their parents. This article gives the date of marriage as 1798 not 1805 as in Part 1. Also 3 of their children were born prior to 1805. Hargis' father, John Holbrook, Sr. deeded Hargis land -- for love I bear my son -- land where Hargis now lives -- in 1805. Possibly someone picked up this date as the date of marriage. Mr. Gregory's article also shows 6 children as follows: Elizabeth, b ca 1799, m Henry Gambill in 1816, moved to Lawrence Co., Ky, had eleven children, and died 25 July 1855; Ezekiel Holbrook, b ca 1800, m Susannah Crouse and reared a large family; John H. (you show John Hargis) b ca 1802, m Nancy Absher 3 May 1822, and had 4 children, (Namely Caleb m Phoebe Absher; William J. m 9319 Malinda Walker) Katherine m Edmond Absher; and Polly not married in 1860.); A dau, name unknown, who m William Brooks; Mary, b ca 1805, m John Collier, moved to Ky where they reared 8 children; and Phoebe m William Baker 20 Apr 1828. Mr. Gregory does not show the son, William B. Holbrook, b ca 1809, d 2 Sept 1877, m 23 May 1833, Sarah Fyffe which is your No. 47. I have not seen this deed of conveyance yet, so this is being sent just for info at this time.

In so far as I know, there was no Rachel Girt Holbrook. This is probably a misinterpretation of the 1850 Lawrence Co., KY Census, household #54, Ambrose and Nancy (Elam) Holbrook. The last individual in this household in 1850 was Rachel Gent(Ghent), b ca 1840. Jane Gent/Ghent, age 14, is in household #51.

HOLBROOKS IN KENTUCKY

By: Clayton R. Cox

As our March issue was given to the printer in Nov 1991, we have a few letters to catch-up.

First letter from Evelyn Ferguson, 2650 S. Eudora, Street, Denver, CO 80222.

PART 5 - Sept 1991

#266 Randolph Boggs and his wife Martha were not first cousins. She was the daughter of Pleasant and Sarah (Jordan) Holbrook - See #34 Part 1.

#275. Sarah Jane Boggs did not marry John W. Boggs. In fact, we do not know who she married. The Sarah Frances Boggs who married John W. Boggs in 1876 was the daughter of #266 Randolph Boggs. Ref: Lawrence Co. Mar Records. Also photo and article page 341 History of Lawrence Co., KY.

#288. David Holbrook married Hannah Paulina Prince, daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Terry) Prince. Ref: Lawrence Co. Mar Records & 1870 census.

#292. Detroit Holbrook, b May 4, 1850, d Oct 16, 1853. Ref: Tombstone, Nels Rice Cemetery near Blaine, KY.

#290. James Hayden Holbrook m Florence V. E. Harris.

#294. Rebecca Holbrook m Daniel Britton Bailey.

Editor's note: I believe her letter indicates #290; #293; #294; & #295 were the children of #285, William Hargus Holbrook per the 1870 & 1880 Lawrence Co., Ky. census.

#289. Mary Emily Holbrook, did not marry James L. Franklin, second, rather it was Mary Jane, a dau of #285 William Hargis Holbrook who married James L. Franklin in 1892. Ref: Lawrence Co. Mar Records.

Second letter from Evelyn Ferguson, above.

PART 6, Dec 1991, Page 26.

9418 Removed from Family

#377. Claybourne Holbrook not listed as a member of this family on the 1870 and 1880 Elliott Co., KY censuses. Also the 3 month difference his birthdate of Oct 1854 and that of #378, Laban Holbrook, b Jan 1855 is an impossibility. According to census Records Laban's birth is correct.

No Action

The 1870 Elliott Co., Ky census lists between #379 Israel and #380 Richard a Lafayette Holbrook, age 9 years. The 1880 Elliott Co., KY census lists in the same position in order of births - Corbin. Are Lafayette and Corbin one and the same.

No Action

Same situation for #381 Tenessee. 1870 census says Tennessee, age 2 years, 1880 census says Rena, age 12 years. One and the same? Most likely.

9425 9426

1870 Elliott Co., Ky. census also lists with this family: Simon, age 13; Mary, age 11; Elizabeth, age 8; and John, age 6. Whose children are these?

" 9427 9428

see #12-24 seems ok!

PART 5 - Sept 1991 Page 14 #291 & PART 7 - March 1992, Page 14 # 505

Mrs. Ferguson indicates a son of #291 John Harris Holbrook would be too young. I concur and believe this writer erred in listing as a child of #291, rather than as #292, with Sarah Leticia being shown as Letite. Is this correct? Not if the tombstone dates listed by Mrs. Ferguson for #292 are correct.
Editor's question: Where does this Claybourned listed as #377 fit now, and his lineage. Also need answers to other questions Mrs. Ferguson has raised.

CORRECTION: Mary Jenkins, 77 N. Huron Ave., Columbus, OH 43204.
I, obviously made a mistake in my correction per the first paragraph on page 14 of the March Issue. The first sentence should read: James Skaggs who married Mary Holbrook instead of John Skaggs who married Mary Holbrook ---. I am sorry for this error.

Carole Bays, 5 Winding Hollow Trail, Dayton, OH 45414.

PART 7 - March 1992 - Page 14
#531. 9698 Susannah Holbrook, married Alexander 9697 "Alley" Bays (His name was not Allen) the son of William Hamilton and Rosanna (Hoskins) Bays. See page 20 of the Sept 1988 issue for his picture. Alexander born Nov. 1, 1852, d Oct 5, 1915 per Breathitt Co. Mar records. Certificate listed her as age 23 and Alexander age 33. Susannah born 1862, died 1930. After William Hamilton Bays disappeared, Rosanna m a Hiram Walters. I have no proof, but I have been told, one or maybe two of their children married into the Holbrook family, possibly Leander and Henry Hardin. Believe this data from Dr. Wilgus Bach's material , that is, William Calvin Holbrook b Aug 16, 1850, d of parlicis, Aug 21, 1875, m Rebecca Bach, d/o Isaac Bach. ?

PART 4 - June 1991 - Page 16 Per Harry Holbrook, P. O. Box 396, Hager Hill, KY. 41222.

#236. William R. Holbrook did not marry Nancy Elam. Nancy Elam was his mother. William m Pauline Prater in Morgan Co., KY. I am enclosing a computer printout on 3 of Ambrose and Nancy (Elam) Holbrook's sons.

Loren Holbrook, Route 1, Box 513, Olive Hill, KY 41164.
This gentleman would like know how the following Holbrook family may be connected to our Holbrook family series.

see pp. 27

Our family tree has been traced to William A. Holbrook (b ca 1821) and Lydia Adams (b ca 1826). Lydia was the dau of John C. and Elizabeth (?) Adams. 1850 was the first year the United States Census listed any other than head of household. This particular year finds William, age 27, and Lydia, age 21, in Letcher Co., KY. They had the following children and ages at last birthday: Hiram 8; John 5; Elizabeth 1. William's occupation was farming. 1860 finds William and Lydia in Perry County, receiving their mail at Hazard, KY. In addition to those children listed in 1850 four additional children are listed: Robert 8; Nancy 6; Jesse 4; and William 2.

William A. Holbrook enlisted in the 54th Kentucky Infantry, Company M on 1 September 1863, and was discharged on 1 September 1864. Hiram, eldest son of William, also joined the Union Forces, enlisting as a private in November of 1861, discharged 12 September 1865.

1870 finds William and Lydia in Carter County. (Editor note: Another family that would indicate the general concensus that Carter County was settled to a large extent by Union sympapathizers). Hiram, John and Elizabeth are presumed married because they are not a part of this household. An additional child, Lydia, is presumed to be the last child of William and Lydia.

Hiram married Sarah Jane Mitchell, Jesse married Martha E. Birchfield, and had the following children: Mary, Nancy J., Adeline, Robert, John, Hiram, Sarah, Louada. William, Jr. married Sarah Parsons and had the following children: Millard, George, Melvin, Harve, Hatler, Carrie, Peacher. Robert married Sarah Francis Hamilton and had the following children: Carrie, Della, Amanda, Lilly. Little is know about the rest of the children of William and Lydia.

H. and Nancy Frazier. John, after completing school in Letcher County, enrolled at Cumberland College at the age of 17. He earned a First Class Teachers Certificate and for 20 years was one of the leading teachers in Letcher County. At the turn of the century there was a call for a State Guard Unit in the area. He was active in mustering and training and soon made Captain. For several years he trained with his men locally and at the state encampment. About 1914, there being some trouble with Mexico, the U. S. Government called the state guards and sent them as a unit to be stationed on the Rio Grande Border. Here he was promoted to the rank of Lt. Colonel. His unit served on the border for two years until the trouble passed and they returned home. John, upon his return, resumed his merchantile business which he had started prior to his border service and continued it until his retirement a few years prior to his death, because of age. For many years Cornelia was an active and faithfull member of the Presbyterian Church. John and Cornelia are buried in the family lot of the Mayking Cemetery.

Prior to moving to Woods Co., OK, where they are found on the 1900 census, apparently the family spent some time in Kansas as one of their children was born there. Some Lawrence County Kentuckians were in Morris Co., KS in 1880; perhaps this is where this family was at that time. My. father, Henry Price Bishop recalled that William "Bill" Gambill was his mother's first cousin, Bill's father, John Gambill, being a a brother of Elizabeth (Gambill) Sparks, mother of Sarah Catherine (Sparks) Bishop. Bill Gambill lived in Aline, OK in 1910, had homesteaded land on the Cherokee Strip, Alfalfa Co., OK, when it opened. John Gambill had sons Thornt, Bill, Jess & John. Thornt Gambill also farmed at Aline, OK. One of Thornt's brothers worked for Rock Island Railroad, El Reno, OK, briefly, about 1954. My father also remembered that some of the family moved to Enid, OK, but went back each year to celebrate the opening ot the Cherokee Strip.

He thought the names I was requesting info about were his Dad's people. I wrote back the name of his father, but received no further information.

From the recollection of Henry Price Bishop, father of Louise B. Fowler, "Lant" went to NE soon after he married. He bought and worked a farm there until he had enough money (about $2000) to go to medical school. He was educated in KY, but my father did not remember where. He started practicing medicine between 1902 and 1906 in KY, practiced there 5 to 10 years then returned to NE. Daddy thought Lant raised wheat in NE. He always tried to remember one "story" about everyone and this was the story he remembered for Lant. "He had four horses hooked to a wagon load of wheat that he was trying to take to market. When he went over the bridge, it gave way. Wheat, horses, and wagon floated down the river. Land said, 'Lord, if you are against me, I'll never make a doctor, anyway." Daddy thought that Lant cared for Vessie's mother, his mother-in-law, taking her with them when he went to NE. Daddy also remembered that his uncle Lant had a son, Herbert, who was about his age. (Daddy b 1894, Lawrence Co., KY). Thought that he had heard that some of Lant's children were wheat farmers in KS and NE.

10175 813. Hugh H. Sparks, b Sept 17, 1867, d June 28, 1892.

0176 814. Sarah Catherine "Sally" Sparks, b ca 1836 69, Martha, Lawrence Co., KY, d Oct 1, 1931 at McKinney, TX, m in Lawrence Co., KY, Sept 2, 1887, Chilton 10186 Harvey Bishop, b July 16, 1866, Blaine, Lawrence Co., KY; d at Weatherford, Custer Co., OK, May 10, 1953, son of John R. and Elizabeth (Coburn) Bishop. Sarah and Chilton are buried in the Plainview Cemtery near Weatherford, OK.

From the recollection of Henry Price Bishop, son of Chilton & Sally: Chilton was a farmer. He talked of raising turkeys in the first years of his marriage, driving them from Martha, KY to Louisa, KY to market. He told of the turkeys getting scared just before dark and scattering everywhere, got up in the trees to roost. Chilton owned his farm about 72 acres, on the left hand fork of Collier Creek, west. He also raised corn and sorghum for molasses, pigs, chickens, a couple of calves each year and had horses and cows.

Their first home was a one room cabin on this farm, where their first four children were born, Maude, Dee L., Henry Price, and Della Emma. While living there, Chilton built a side room which was used for a kitchen. He sold this home and land to his brother, John Bishop.

The second home Chilton provided for his family was about a quarter of a mile from the first one, further up on the left hand fork of Collier Creek. There was no wagon road to the house, just horse trails through the timber. It was the last house before you crossed Mount Caney, Caney Creek was on the other side of the mountain. He bought this farm, 118 acres, from "Shine" Gambill, who had operated a still there. This house had three rooms with ~~with~~ another unfinished room upstairs. There was one large room with a fireplace, another bedroom, a kitchen and the room upstairs. The children slept upstairs and he remembered his mother weaving there, he would throw the shuttle for her. They lived there until about 1906. Three more children were born there, Mary, Annie and Bithey.

Price started to school at Martha, KY. The school was held about six months, as he remembered and finished the year about Dec. His first teacher was a distant cousin, Jim Sparks. The school at Martha was across the creek from the store and post office. Ferret Holbrook, a relative, but Price did not know just how, ran the store and post office. Ferret had a wooden leg; lost his leg in a logging accident. The logs were floated down the creek to the mill. A log got stuck and hanging the other logs. Ferret said, "Let a man get a hold of this and do it." He stuck his pick in the log to move it, and the pick stuck or something causing him to fall, then lost his leg. Ferret had a dau, Della, who was about ready to finish school when Price started, and an adopted dau. The adopted dau was a relative of Ferret's whose parents had died. Price remembered at school one day, the children had to tell about their mothers and the child became very upset, cried and cried. The children just watched until she was alright again.

Price also remembered going to a church service at Oscar Kazee's, probably a revival. The porch of the home served as the pulpit. The preacher would stand on the porch and the people would sit on seats made by placing lumber planks (probably about one or two inches by ten inches) across stumps or something. (TO BE CONTINUED)

Now to pick up where we left off with the lineage in the March 1993 issue.

814. (Continuation of the write-up on Sarah Catherine Sparks who m Harvey Bishop.)

Price was 12 years old when the family moved to Ohio. Sally's nephew, Charlie Sparks, took the family in a wagon to Webbville, KY, where they took the train. They left in March and the roads were muddy; it was hard for the team of horses to pull the wagon; it took two days. The train took them to Ashland, Ky., going through three tunnels. The children saw and ate their first bread made from wheat flour at Ashland. It was called light-bread. Sally had always made their bread with cornmeal. Chilt bought three loaves of bread for 25 cents, intending it to be eaten with their supper. The first chance the children had, they waded into it, pinched it off, and ate every bite.

They rode the street car, an inter-urban from Ashland to Kenova, West Virginia, spent the night in the train depot at Kenova. They then took the train to Columbus, Ohio. This was the first big town the children had seen. They walked about a mile from the train depot to catch another street car to London, Ohio. Price remembered that Della had rheumatism, and could not walk, had to be carried everywhere they went.

Chilton had arranged to rent a farm before leaving Ky. It was located two miles from Sedalia at Midway, Ohio. They stayed with Milt Caudel, a friend from Lawrence Co., KY, at London while Chilt was getting provisions and a wagon to move the family on to the farm. Milt was a part time policeman in London, Ohio.

The farm was just inside Washington County, London was the county seat. The children went to school at Midway, Ohio; the post office was at Sedalia. They lived there for two years. The youngest child, Belva, was born there. This house had two rooms downstairs, one room upstairs and what they called a "summer" kitchen. The rooms were all large.

They then moved to a farm about 9 miles south of London, and 3 miles north of Sedalia. This house had seven large rooms. Chilt was renting the farm and the owner wanted to return. Chilt sold his crop to the owner, and in November, after Chilt voted in the election, the family moved to Aline, OK. Chilt was a Republican and wanted to vote for Taft for President before they moved. They were at this farm from March until November.

Sally's first cousins, Bill Gambill and two of his brothers, lived at Aline, OK. Chilt rented land there for two years, arriving in the Fall and leaving in the Spring to move to Canton, OK.

Chilton bought two houses in the town of Canton, OK, and leased land from the Indians. One of the best school teachers Price remembered having was Mr. J. P. Evans who taught school at Canton, OK.

From Canton the family moved to Korn, Washita Co., OK, near South Cedar School and near Weatherford, OK. Chilton bought a farm there. This was a German settlement and during World War I, the spelling of the town was changed to Corn. Price was 17 and Dee was 20 when the family moved to Korn, and they went to Santa Rita, New Mexico where they worked in a hotel/boarding house for a while then returned to OK.

Sarah became ill with cancer and in 1931, Price took her to McKinney, Collin Co., TX for treatment. She died there 1 Oct 1931 and he brought her body back to Weatherford, OK for burial in Plainview Cemetery.

While Price and his mother were in McKinney, the home of Chilton and Sally was destroyed by fire. Everything was destroyed, including the family Bible, photographs, all their personal belongings.

After Sally's death, Chilton married a widow, Nelia Vee Haggard, 22 May 1935. She had no children while married to Mr. Haggard, but had previously been married to a Mr. Stevens by whom, she had at least one child, a son, Ovie Stevens.

10177 815. Matilda Jane Sparks, b 9 Oct 1871, Lawrence Co., KY, d of tuberculosis ca 1903. She married 10187 Frank E. Sparks, son of William Henry Sparks, grandson of William Sparks, and great grandson of Robert Sparks, about 1899. My father thought Frank went to Wisconsin after Matilda died, but that he did not stay.

10178 816. William Edison Sparks, b 16 May 1874, Lawrence Co., KY, d 31 May 1947, Sandy Hook, Elliott Co., KY, bur Sparks Family Cemetery, Martha, KY. He married (1) 10188 Tabitha "Bithy" Moore, 1894, Lawrence Co., KY. She was born July 1875, KY. Bithy had a twin sister named Sarah. Sarah's husband ran a General Store at Blaine, KY. Bithey was an excellent seamstress and a perfectionist.

Bill was a physician. He received his medical education at KY School of Medicine, Louisville, graduating in 1907. He, with his son, Oscar, visited my fahter, Henry Price Bishop, in OK in 1910. s/c

My father remembered that he was a handsome man, tease, ladies man. He played the organ and fiddle and sang and danced. After Bithey divorced him, he m (2) _?_ Skaggs. They also divorced after a short marriage.

Bill married again, a good woman whom he shared the rest of his life. They had just returned from church and as he stepped up on the porch, he was shot by a man he hardly knew. The man had been to see him as a patient one time; was thought to have a mental problem. Bithey married as her 2nd husband, Mr. Swetnam, who was her first cousin.

10179 817. Nancy Bell Sparks, b 27 Dec 1876, died young.

10180 818. James Alonzo "Jim Lon" Sparks, b 20 July 1880, Lawrence Co., KY, d 1 Oct 1931, Huntington, Cabell Co., WV. He md Millie Dobyns, a sister of the wife of his nephew, Ovie Lyons. 10189

My father remembered his Uncle Jim Lon as being a brilliant man, was a school principal, studing law when he decided to go to dental school. Went to dental school about the same time as Ovie Lyon and Herbert Sparks. When he was about 20 years old, he left KY and no one knew where he went. He had gone to Oklahoma where he was practicing medicine in Beckham and ? Roger Mills Cos. without a license.

HOLBROOKS IN KENTUCKY

I have been delving into the Robert Holbrook/Frances Holbrook mystery. In the above part you mention that Frances Holbrook is shown as the wife of both #84 and #102. Should I tell you that a third Robert shows Frances as his wife. See #255.

There appear to be 3 different Robert Holbrooks. Each has a unique birthdate and appears to have lived in a different county from the other two. Brothers and sisters of Robert #84 lived mostly in Elliott Co., KY. Brothers and sisters of Robert #102 were mostly married in Carter Co., KY. Brothers and sisters of Robert #255 were mostly married in Lawrence Co., KY. In summary: #84 Robert, Elliot Co., KY; #102 Robert in Carter Co., KY; and #255 Robert in Lawrence Co., KY. Data in TEK for #84 shows both Robert and Frances were buried in the Holbrook Cemetery, Elliott Co., KY. If this data is correct, then it appears the husband of #194 Frances Holbrook is #84 Robert Holbrook.

✓ Part 1, Page 8, June 1990

75. Biz Holbrook should be deleted. He appears as #223 in Part 4, Page 15.

Part 4, Page 15, March 1991

✓ 207. James Lyon - Birthdate of 1870 probably should be 1820.
9167 225. John K. Holbrook, Jr. - Date of death shows 1820, which is before his birthyear of 1822.

Part 4, Page 16, March 1991

✓ 248. Sarah Ann Holbrook shows marriage to Ralph Calloway Holbrook. This should read Ralph Calloway Holbrook m Sarah Ann Holbrook #370 the dau of William and Sally (Sparks) Holbrook. (Reference page 48 of the HOLBROOK book by William Clinton Castevens.)

8917 83. William Holbrook, remained with his mother in KY until 1838 when he and others started westward to Buford, Ohio Co., KY. On the way he and Alex Goins, a mule trader, decided to head for S. C. with a pack of mules. William thought Alex was obtaining mules without paying for them so he left. He was afraid Alex would kill him if they ever met so he went to Traphill, NC and lived with his cousin, Johnnie Holbrook. A few weeks later, while plowing a "new ground" a mule ran away with William tangled in the lines. He suffered a broken hip which was not set properly. He had to use a cane for the rest of his life. He married Sarah Malinda "Sally" Sparks, dau of John Jr. and Polly (Fields) Sparks. Sally is buried in the Traphill Baptist Church Cemetery, Traphill, NC.

350. Question marriage of Martha Jane Holbrook to Randolph Boggs on 17 Aug 1843, as she would have only been 11 years old. (Editor's note, although this is a very young age for a marriage, I have a documented family where the bride was definitely 11 years old, so I am unwilling to make this change without further data.)

We don't have enough space to put in another letter we have, nor do we have enough space to add any additional lineage material for this issue.

Dear Mr. Cox,

I subscribed to THE EAST KENTUCKIAN last year and have had a lot of fun reading about the various families of eastern Kentucky. Since I grew up in Knott County, many of these families are of special interest to me.

I have collected the Holbrook articles and am entering the data into my PC database using the PAF program. When I am finished I will be able to print various documents and also have available an index to everyone in the family. When this series is completed, I will print a listing with index and send you a copy. It might make finding a specific individual much easier.

I have been delving into the Robert Holbrook/Frances Holbrook mystery. You mentioned in Part 4 Page 13 that Frances Holbrook is shown as the wife of both #84 and #102. Should I tell you that a third Robert shows Frances as his wife? See #255.

There appear to be three different Robert Holbrooks. Each has a unique birthdate and appears to have lived in a different county from the other two. Brothers and sisters of Robert #84 lived mostly in Elliott Co., KY. Brothers and sisters of Robert #102 were mostly married in Carter Co., KY. Brothers and sisters of Robert #255 were mostly married in Lawrence Co., KY. In summary:

#84	Robert	Elliott Co., KY
#102	Robert	Carter Co., KY
#255	Robert	Lawrence Co., KY

Data in TEK for #84 shows both Robert and Frances were buried in the Holbrook Cemetery, Elliott Co., KY. If this data is correct, then it appears that the husband of #194 Frances Holbrook is #84 Robert Holbrook.

Although Carter, Elliott, Lawrence , and Johnson counties are in close proximity, people did not often move from one county to another and for sure did not live in one county and be buried in another county unless their family lived within a mile or so of the county line.

From my many years in IBM computer system design and programming, I realize one should not infer too much from "facts". But, in this case, I think the conclusion stated above is most likely correct.

Part 1 page 8 #75 Biz Holbrook should be deleted. He appears as #223 in Part 4, page 15.

Part 4 page 15 #207 James Lyon Birthdate of 1870 probably should be 1820.

Part 4 page 15 #225	John K. Holbrook, Jr. Date of death shows 1820 which is before his birth year of 1822.
Part 4 page 16 #238	Louisa Holbrook Death date of 1959 is impossible. Probably should be 1859.
Part 4 page 16 #248	Sarah Ann Holbrook Shows marriage to Ralph Calloway Holbrook. This is incorrect. Ralph Calloway Holbrook married #370 Sarah Ann Holbrook. (Reference page 102 of the HOLBROOK book by William Clinton Castevens)

I certainly enjoy the TEK! Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

Harold R. Lowder

Dear Mr. Cox,

On April 1, 1994, I sent you a letter with some notes pertaining to the Holbrook family.

Correction to note about Part 4 page 16 #248 Sarah Ann Holbrook:
#248 should be: Ralph Calloway Holbrook m. Sarah Ann Holbrook (#370)
Names were reversed in the printed document (part 4 page 16).
(Reference page 48 of HOLBROOK book by William C. Castevens)
Enclosed is a family sheet for the #57 Ralph Holbrook and Nancy Spicer family. Dates and proper birth order are shown.

Part 6 page 26 #83 WILLIAM HOLBROOK and SALLY SPARKS
Enclosed is a family sheet for this family.
Two additional children that died young are shown along with dates, etc.

Part 2 page 17 #108 Martha "Patsy" Holbrook b. 31 DEC 1830
Part 6 page 25 #350 Martha Jane Holbrook b. 19 JUL 1843
Both show a marriage to Randolph Boggs on 17 AUG 1854.
#350 would have been only 11 years old. #350 then married Richard A. Rowan 22 DEC 1859 when she was 16. I removed the marriage to Randolph Boggs from #350.

I have completed entering data for the first 6 parts into my PC database. I will send you any additions, corrections, etc.

Sincerely,

June 2, 1994

Dear Mr. Cox,

I received the JUNE 1994 issue of THE EAST KENTUCKIAN. As usual, I enjoyed reading about the various families.

On page 27, under #350 you discussed the marriage of Martha Jane Holbrook to Randolph Boggs on 17 AUG 1843. I brought up this item in my letter dated April 4, 1994 to you. I did not mean to imply that a girl 11 years old could not be married. In fact, a girl just down the road from me on Salt Lick Creek of Knott County was 12 when she was married.

In Part 2 Page 17, #108 Martha "Patsy" Holbrook b. 31 DEC 1830 is listed as marrying Randolph Boggs on 17 AUG 1854.
In Part 6 page 25, #350 Martha Jane Holbrook b. 19 JUL 1843 is ALSO listed as marrying Randolph Boggs on 17 AUG 1854.
One of these has to be in error. Since #350 married Richard A. Rowan on 22 DEC 1859 when she was 16, she is the most likely of the two to have NOT married Randolph Boggs on 17 AUG 1854. I believe this is a case of "the name is the same" and two family researchers assumed the marriage record applied to "their" Martha Holbrook.

Sincerely,

Harold R. Lowder
